

Ashley Dunnaway

SUMMARY

Performance-driven professional seeking an opportunity to apply my expertise, leadership abilities, and passion for making a positive impact to deliver outstanding outcomes and drive organizational success. Dedicated to ongoing growth and professional development, while fostering a collaborative team culture.

EDUCATION

Master of Business Administration

June 2023

GPA 4.0

Longwood University, Farmville, VA

Master of Teaching

December 2016

GPA 4.0

Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond, VA

Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies in Early & Elementary Education

May 2015

Minor in Psychology

GPA 3.7

Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond, VA

EXPERIENCE

Prince William County Schools, VA | Educator

December 2016 – Present

- Collaborated with administrators to select qualified applicants during the interviewing process.
- Analyzed and monitored trends across multiple sources of data to provide actionable feedback.
- Maintain confidential records and prepare reports
- Delegate and prioritize tasks for efficient and effective completion
- Developed cooperative working relationships to promote a positive work environment.
- Planned and prepared lessons to facilitate student learning and engage students
- Designed interactive content in a learning management system to organize activities, present learning modules, and assess learner retention

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Longwood University, Farmville, VA

- The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi, April 2023 - Present
- Executive Leadership Training by UNC Charlotte, November 2022

Prince William County Schools, VA

- Grade Level Representative for the Gifted & Talented Students Committee, 2021 - 2023
- Presenter at PWCS Annual Excellence & Equity in Education Conference, 2019
- Team Lead, 2017 – 2021

AWARDS AND ACHIEVEMENTS

- Prince William County's Outstanding Teacher of the Year Award, 2017-2018